

Social-Emotional Learning in Adolescents and Teens

University of Virginia
Alumni Hall
February 28, 2019
8:30- 3:00

AGENDA

8:30 Welcome and introductions

9:00 Keynote presentation and workshop
Dominique Smith

All Learning is Social-Emotional Learning

Dominique Smith is Chief of Educational Services and Teacher Relations at Health Sciences High and Middle College in San Diego.

He is co-author with Nancy Frey and Doug Fisher of All Learning is Social-Emotional Learning: Helping Students Develop Essential Skills for the Classroom and Beyond

12:30 Lunch

1:15 Student Panel and Discussion
Girls for a Change

Girls for a Change seeks to empower young women by inviting them to design and lead social change projects while advancing their 21st-century skills beyond the classroom. GFAC works to close opportunity gaps faced by disadvantaged, marginalized or underrepresented girls.

2:15 Briefing on the Virginia Board of Education's Equity Focus Leah Walker

Leah Walker is the Director of the Office of Equity and Community Engagement at the Virginia Department of Education.

3:00 Adjourn